

COOKIES POLICY

The Clinic under the trade name "PRIVATE CLINIC GENESIS ATHENS S.A." uses cookies for the better operation of its website www.genesisathens.gr and the improvement of your navigation in it. The goal is to make your online experience and your interaction with the site as friendly, informative and personalized as possible. It is very important for you to know what kind of cookies our website uses and for what purposes. This will help protect your personal data while ensuring a friendly environment. In the texts that follow, you can read about cookies in general, about which cookies we use and how to disable their use.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that a website saves on your computer, tablet, or mobile device when you visit that website. In this way, the site remembers your actions and preferences (such as visualization preferences, language) for a period of time, so you do not have to enter these preferences each time you visit the site or browse its pages.

Moreover, cookies help us analyze how you use our website and whether you face any problems during your navigation.

In any case, we cannot identify your personal identity from cookies. Cookies are stored only on your own device (computer, tablet, mobile phone), and we do not maintain any file or database with your personal data.

No access to the user's device files is obtained by the use of cookies. In addition, cookies cannot damage the user's device and do not store personal information.

We use two types of cookies:

- Session cookies These are temporary cookies that remain in the cookies file of your device's browser only during your visit and are deleted when you terminate the browser.

Cookies are only stored on your device if you consent. If you do not accept cookies, performance and functionality of the site may be affected.

- Persistent cookies These remain in the cookies file of your device's browser even after the browser is terminated, sometimes for one year or more (the exact length of stay depends on the lifetime of each cookie) or until you delete them.

The cookies placed on our website and how to manage them

The Clinic under the trade name "PRIVATE CLINIC ATHENS GENESIS S.A." at its website <http://www.genesisathens.gr> uses the strictly necessary cookies, performance cookies, traffic management cookies, targeting / usage statistics cookies, social networking cookies, and third-party cookies.

- Strictly Necessary Cookies

The strictly necessary cookies are crucial to the proper operation of the website, allow you to browse and use its functions, such as access to secure areas. These cookies do not recognize your individual identity, but without them we cannot provide effective functionality for our site.

- Traffic Management Cookies

On our website we use traffic management cookies to help identify technical problems that may occur during your navigation. Based on the information collected by these cookies, we can correct technical mistakes and problems and thus continually improve the services we offer through our website.

- Performance cookies

Performance cookies collect information about how you use the website, such as which pages you visit more often and whether you receive error messages. Information collected is aggregated and, therefore, anonymous. These cookies are used only to improve the way a website works.

- Target / Usage Statistics Cookies

These cookies are used to provide content that best suits you and your interests. These cookies can be used so that we remember the websites you've visited to determine which online marketing channels are most effective and allow us to reward external websites and partners who forwarded you to us.

- Social Networking Cookies

Articles, images and videos you see on our website can be shared and made popular with social media via buttons. Social Networking cookies are used to make these buttons work so they can understand when you want to share an article or video. Social networks may also collect your personal information for their own purposes. For more information about cookies set up by social networks and possible information they collect, please refer to the privacy statement provided by each social network.(e.g. Facebook, YouTube).

- Third-party cookies

These are cookies used by third parties, such as social networks to track your visits to the various sites they are advertised by. Our website administrator has no control over these third-party cookies.

How to control cookies

As already mentioned, cookies are stored on your computer after you have first been informed and consented to any of these categories, except for the strictly necessary cookies and management cookies, for which explicit consent is not required. It is at your discretion to control and / or delete cookies. You have the right to withdraw your consent to use of these cookies at any time for all cookies except necessary and traffic management cookies. Site functionality will not be significantly affected if you disable or disagree to the use of cookies on this website. However, this may cause navigation difficulties on the website, and some website features may not be available. In addition, disabling a cookie or a cookie category will not delete existing cookies from the browser - this must be done separately, through the browser. You can find further information on how to disable cookies or customize the cookies settings for your browser from the list below:
